And smack-dab-in-the-middle of these three chapters mentioning spiritual gifts Paul writes 1 Corinthians 13 - often a favorite chapter for believers because of its focus on God-honoring love.

Spiritual Gifts: Listed by Paul, Motivated by Love

Love is what makes all other gifts and actions worthwhile. If Paul was able to speak all the languages of men and angels, it would be just noise if he did not have love. Notice that Paul is not claiming that he is able to speak all languages, including the angelic tongue.

Spiritual Gifts: The Greatest Gift is Love

Like the other spiritual gifts, love is the result of the supernatural power of the Holy Spirit. It is "the love of God shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given to us" (Rom. 5:5).

The gift of prophecy, bestowed on God's faithful throughout history, most recently rested upon Ellen White, who conveyed the given messages in admonition and writing. Many of her earliest testimonies and views are published in the Spiritual Gifts volumes.
The time from the creation to Israel's wilderness wandering is detailed in this third volume, and the stories of patriarchs and prophets come alive.

Spiritual Gifts, vol. 3 — Ellen G. White Writings

We like to think of tears as sacraments of love. Because we also believe that crying is a spiritual experience that benefits from practice, we appreciate a good movie that makes us cry. It draws out our deep feelings of connection with others — sometimes in their suffering, pain, and isolation, and other times in their joy and celebration.
