Melissa Fay Greene author of Praying for Sheetrock and The Temple Bombing The Ballad of Little River is a tale of the Southern backwoods, filled with old-fashioned sense of place, of kin, of midsummer heat and copperheads and welfare checks and cinder-block churches and -- because this is Alabama, both changing and unchanging -- of a sense of the other, of racial distance. At its core one finds both kindness and cruelty, told in the desultory voice of a longtime storyteller and seer into the ...
